

Pushing the frontiers of human knowledge and understanding

International subscriptions

£204

million total international subscription payments

746

UK particle physicists carried out research at CERN

352

UK astronomers using ESO telescopes

ESRF and ILL were accessed by:

540

UK users

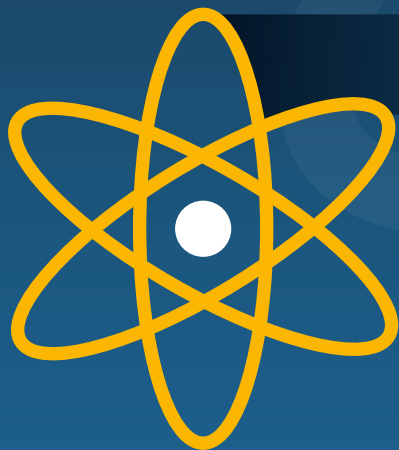

who made

1011

visits to these facilities

Our involvement in upcoming international facilities includes financial resources, in-kind resources, and technical expertise, in both the construction and operational phases. Current involvement includes:

Large-scale research facilities in the UK

In 2018-19, Diamond, ISIS and the CLF were used by:

6,770 unique users to carry out

4,194 experiments, which produced

1,787 papers in peer-reviewed journals

Developing skills for the UK research base and wider economy

Invested £28 million in post graduate training awards and fellowships in 2018-19

Invested in postgraduate training and fellowships bringing total cohort to 1,197 PhD students

130 Apprentices have been employed via our growing apprenticeship scheme

2,000+ PhD facility users in 2018-19 and nearly 20,000

PhD Training days provided at our facilities

50 graduates recruited in 2019

65 sandwich students recruited in 2019