7. Cover for Difference in Conditions or Difference in Limits
The Insurer agrees to pay the Policyholder any claim made which is not recoverable under this Policy but which would have been covered under an equivalent employer purchased group personal accident and/or business travel policy purchased in the United Kingdom by the Policyholder and issued in the United Kingdom to them during the 12 month period immediately prior to inception of the first Period of Insurance with the Insurer. This shall include the former Marsh Ltd Placement Plus Facility wording.

This agreement is only applicable to the extent of:

a. any difference in the amount payable or,

b. any difference in the policy cover provided, compared with the prior policy wording, policy schedule and the endorsements attached and will only be applicable to claims arising and advised to the Insurer during the Period of Insurance or until such time as the policy is lapsed or cancelled, whichever is the sooner.

The agreement will not apply to:

a. any difference between the terms of the Policy and the prior terms of the Policyholder’s prior policy that is as a result of any change to limits, terms or conditions agreed with the Policyholder which are a condition of the Insurer agreeing to provide insurance under this Policy as a whole or any section of the Policy, and

i. if the breach is before the Policy is entered into, the Insurer may avoid the Policy and refuse all claims, and need not return any of the premiums paid by the Policyholder
ii. if the breach is in relation to a variation of the Policy, the Insurer may treat the Policy as if the variation was never made and need not return any of the premiums paid in respect of the variation, in respect of the Policyholder.

It is agreed that in the event of a breach of the duty of fair presentation by a Policyholder, which is not fraudulent, the Insurer irrevocably waives all and any rights and remedies it has/may have as a result of the breach of the duty of fair presentation including, for the avoidance of doubt, any remedy that would have been available under the Insurance Act 2015. It is for the Insurer to show that a breach was fraudulent.

For the purposes of this clause, the phrase “duty of fair presentation” shall have the same meaning as given to it in the Insurance Act 2015

4. Accordingly:
   a. where an Insured Person makes a fraudulent claim under this Policy:
      i. the Insurer is not liable to pay the claim and any sums paid by the Insurer in respect of the claim are to be refunded by the ultimate recipient of such sums;
iii in addition, the Insurer may by notice to the Policyholder and the relevant Insured Person treat the Policy as having been terminated in respect of that Insured Person with effect from the time of the fraudulent act;
b. if the Insurer does treat the Policy as having been terminated in respect of the relevant Insured Person, paragraph 2 shall apply as if it referred to that Insured Person instead of the Policyholder.

   b. a false declaration or statement is made in support of a claim.
Where the above circumstances apply, as part of DAS’ fraud prevention measures they will, at their discretion, also share information with other parties such as the police, government bodies and anti-fraud organisations.

11. Claims under this policy by a third party
Apart from DAS, the Policyholder is the only person who may enforce all or any part of this section of the policy and the rights and interests arising from or connected with it. 12. Other insurances
